GCH Tool Group Adds Sales Engineers

WARREN, MI (March 1, 2019) – GCH Tool Group, the world's largest supplier of spare parts, components and assemblies for centerless, ID, OD, double disc and surface grinders, is pleased to announce that it has added Caitlynn Russell and Ashley Headapohl to its inside sales staff.

Russell, who previously served as GCH Tool sales coordinator, brings many years of experience in customer service and technical support. "GCH Tool is an industry-leading company with a long-standing reputation for quality products and sound business practices," said Russell. "I'm determined to help companies I work with solve challenges and improve their bottom line."

Before joining GCH Tool, Headapohl served as a sales support specialist for an industrial supplier. "I view my customers as partners, and always strive to provide a full-scale solution whatever their obstacles," commented Headpohl. "I look forward to applying my problem-solving skills

"I welcome Caitlynn and Ashley to the sales team," said Dan Geddes, GCH Tool Group president. "Their enthusiasm and experience will boost sales and drive our company goals. We are delighted to have them onboard." Geddes adds, "With our growing sales staff, GCH is well-positioned to provide even greater customer satisfaction."
